america's premier summer camp for lgbtq+ adults

what is 'Camp' Camp?

Camp' Camp is more than a summer camp for adults - it's a life-changing experience for many people. 75% of those who come to Camp return for another year or more.

why is Camp SO loved by so many?

It could be the opportunity to meet 200+ new queer friends from around the country. Maybe it's the welcoming community, the delicious food, the multitude of activities, or the serene, beautiful setting.

why choose 'Camp' Camp over another queer vacation?

The "all-inclusive vacation" factor aside, 'Camp' Camp earns its "best time ever!" tagline due to all the moments, both big and small, created during the week. That's what keeps people coming back again and again. We hope you'll join us this summer and make your own moments to last a lifetime! (Or at least until next summer...)

resetting your perspective

Lots of studies cite the many benefits of vacations, especially those containing fresh experiences. Challenging ourselves creates new synapses and breaks the cycle of stress. 'Camp' Camp offers tons of opportunities to explore new interests and maybe even play outside your comfort zone!

trying everything or just relaxing

Create a week at Camp that's all yours: try new experiences or take it easy and lounge by the lake. Camp has no shortage of things to do including nightly social events and late-night activities. It's truly up to you with a self-tailored vacation - and all at an affordable, all-inclusive price, too!

Reduces stress hormones and lowers blood pressure? Releases endorphins? Check, check, and check. Laughter IS the best medicine, and it's waiting for you EVERYWHERE at Camp. Laugh like you haven't in years!

expressing yourself freely

Discover the joy of doing something that is completely outside your comfort zone - all while having the freedom to express yourself without the worry. Camp encourages everyone to be their true self, in a safe, supportive space with loads of fun people to cheer you on. So shine and be YOU!

unplugging & recharging in nature

Immersing yourself in healing nature is one of the best ways to rejuvenate your body and clear your mind. Spending time outdoors has so many mental and physical health benefits, it's simply amazing. Escape to a nature-filled world where just being is taking good care of yourself.

instantly becoming part of a community

Whether you're an introvert, an extrovert, or somewhere in between, Camp brings together over 200 LGBTQ+ people of all ages and identities together for new friendships and shared experiences. After one week, you'll be a part of a connected, ongoing community - no matter where everyone is the other 51 weeks of the year.

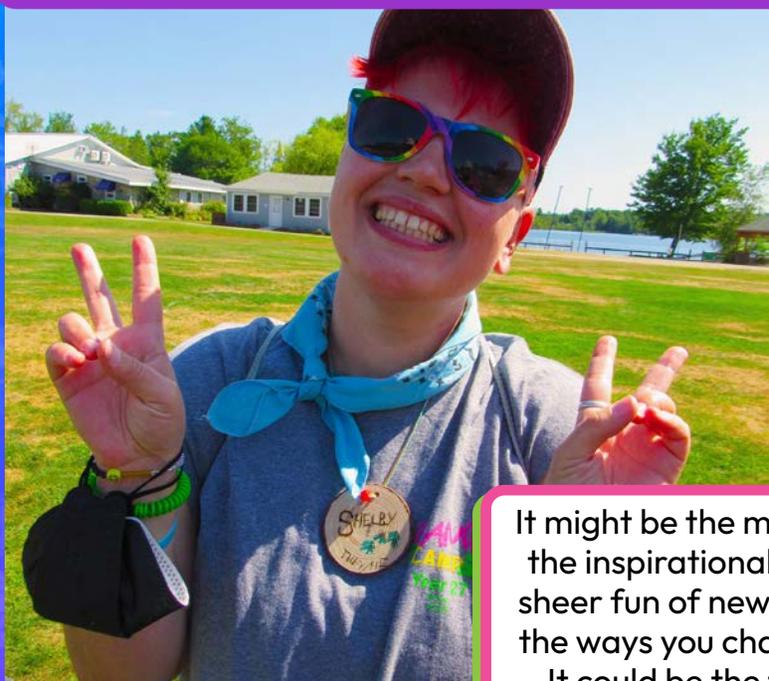

playing like a kid again!

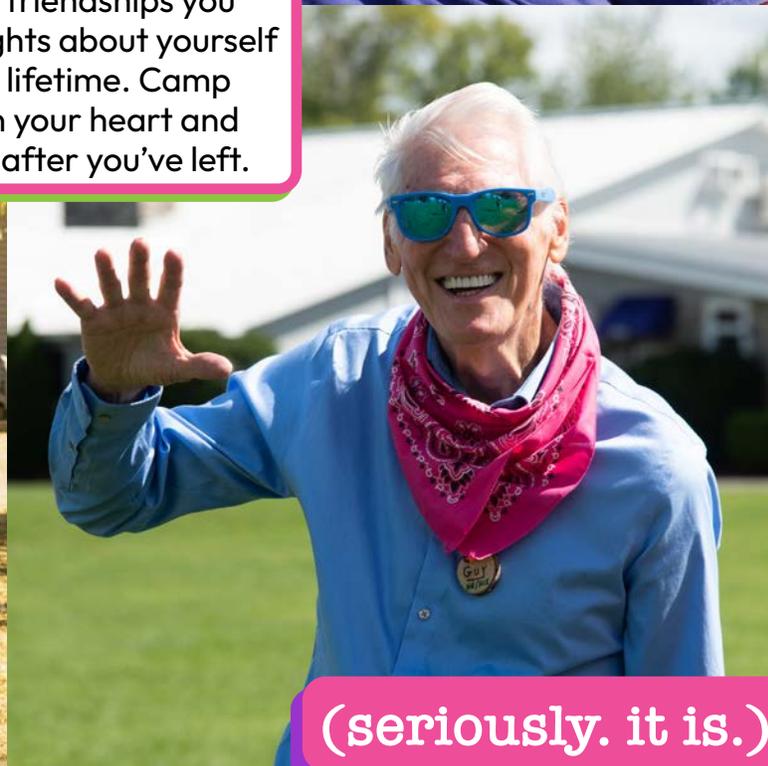

The inherent nature of a summer camp vacation helps you recapture that child-like sense of play that too many of us lose as adults. Between the supportive community and tons of fun new things to do, Camp is a great place to just be carefree and silly for a week!

realizing camp really is the BEST TIME EVER!

It might be the moving stories and the inspirational sharings, or the sheer fun of new experiences and the ways you challenged yourself. It could be the friendships you made or the insights about yourself that will last a lifetime. Camp finds a place in your heart and resonates long after you've left.
